Who We Are:

Bole's Children's Home (est. 1924) and Medina's Children's Home (established 1958) were originally established as Christian Homes for orphans, but have grown with innovative programs designed to serve at-risk children and single-mother families. Because they had identical missions and programs, both homes consolidated to form "Arms of Hope" to achieve efficiency, Geographic diversity, increased capacity, and additional program improvements and offerings. With a talented management team and large campuses in Medina and Quinlan, Texas, Arms of Hope is a leading residential assistance program for disadvantaged children and families.
